Client

Ryan C.

Ryan C. has made great progress since he began attending hourly and day habilitation services at AmeriServe. Over time, he's become more social and connected with the people around him, forming friendships and enjoying group activities.

Ryan is known for his kind attitude and easygoing nature. Ryan likes to joke around and always has a smile on his face. Ryan's confidence has grown, and he continues to build strong bonds with peers and staff alike.

Outside of AmeriServe, Ryan volunteers twice a week at the Habitat for Humanity ReStore, where he's become a valued part of the team. The staff there appreciate his reliability and willingness to help, and he's made a positive impression on everyone he works with.

Ryan's story is a great example of how community involvement and supportive environments can help people grow and shine. He continues to make an impact wherever he goes.

Power of

We're excited to share some wonderful news about Brandon and the progress he's been making! Over the past several months, Brandon has worked hard to build his independence and has consistently shown determination and commitment to reaching his goals.

Thanks to his dedication and personal growth, Brandon recently transitioned to a new DayHab center—an exciting step that reflects just how far he's come. His recent annual meeting was one of the most positive and praiseworthy he's had since joining our company, highlighting his accomplishments and the meaningful progress he continues to make.

Brandon H.

Brandon also brought his big personality and great sense of humor to the spotlight this year by helping MC Ameriserve's annual talent show. He helped set the tone for a fun-filled day and created an atmosphere of joy and celebration for everyone involved.

Brandon is a shining example of how the right plan, the right support team, and a strong, positive attitude can lead to success. We're incredibly proud of everything he's achieved and can't wait to see what the future holds for him!

Team Member SPOTLIGHT

Chandler has been a valued member of the 1133 DayHab team for the past six years. She brings a spunky attitude, a genuine love for the clients, and a strong sense of dedication to her role each day. Chandler is a true team player—always willing to step up to help with interfering behaviors, client care, or whatever else is needed. She actively supports her teammates by sharing her knowledge of DayHab operations and coaching them on the unique personalities and individual needs of each client.

Chandler
Schlotfeld

Her documentation is consistently timely and accurate, and she takes the initiative to help train new team members on proper documentation practices. Chandler also administers medications effectively and efficiently to the clients in her group. Over the years, she has built strong and meaningful relationships with many of the clients and is well-liked by all who attend DayHab. Her care, commitment, and desire to see others succeed truly stand out. Chandler is a tremendous asset to the 1133 DayHab team and to Ameriserve as a whole.

Team Member Goal Achievements

Mary Hess got promoted to Lead CSR!
Amanda Fischer got promoted to CSC!
Samantha Baldwin went to three national parks!
